

Visiting AIMS Chhatralay at Haripur Kalan

39 girls from grade 1 to 12, who ride the school bus for 30min to attend the Swami Dayananda Saraswati school in Rishikesh.

Swamiji and the girls Showing us the Chhatralay

- Our visit was arranged by Swami Hamsanandaji who is in charge of all AIMS Chhatralay in Uttarakhand since 2002
- They have a resident warden, Ms Manorama Pande, and a resident cook Parvatidevi, who wakes up at 4:00am daily to make breakfast and tiffins for the girl. .
- Very clean and well organized. Various duties are assigned to groups of four girls.
- The teacher comes regularly and tutors the girls as needed.
- The girls came from remote villages with dreams for a bright future. Their goals were to become doctor, IT engineer, pilot, chartered accountant, IAS officer, police officer, military officer, dancer and more.

Swami Dayananda Saraswati School Visit

- Mr. Kumar Iyar took us to visit The school in Rishikesh which has approximately 850 students from preschool to grade 12.
- The principal, Mr Girish Uniyal, showed us the school which had all the facilities including various science and computer laboratories, sports facilities, library, music studio and more.
- The students were very disciplined and respectful.
- Overall, we felt blessed to be able to see how well the AIMS funds are used to uplift the lives of these children and their families.
- We highly encourage everyone going to India to visit AIMS Projects.
